

REACH YOUR POTENTIAL

JACO™

2011 Rehab Edition

The JACO robot arm, developed by Kinova at its state-of-the-art R&D department, is a revolutionary manipulator designed for multiple rehabilitation, academic and professional applications. It is a leading product in a new generation of lightweight portable robotic tools that enables users to interact with their environment with complete safety, freedom, and effectiveness.

Unique manipulator to give new opportunities

6 degrees of freedom

Protection zone and security configurable

Controlled by any wheelchair's control

Maximum payload of 1.5 kg

Reach of 0.90 m

Weight of only 5 kg

3 fingers manipulator
with a 12 cm opening

Carbon fiber structure

